Dubai city tour with Burj Khalifa At The Top

After breakfast, leave the hotel at 9.30am for a city tour. This tour introduces both the new and old parts of Dubai. The tour commences with the new environs of Dubai, at the world renowned Atlantis hotel located at the Palm Jumeirah, a man-made island which can be spotted from space. Pass through one of the only 7-star hotels in the world, the Burj Al Arab.

Moving ahead, stop at the exquisite Jumeirah Mosque, a cultural landmark of Dubai. Then, visit at the Union House, where the treaty that formed the United Arab Emirates was signed in 1971.

Head towards the Dubai Creek, where you can explore the Gold Souk, the largest gold market in the world, and the spice market.

Next, head to Downtown Dubai, and to The Dubai Mall, the world largest mall. The mall encompasses over a thousand shops and services, from retail stores and restaurants to the famous SEGA Republic, Dubai's indoor theme park, and Kidzania, a children's entertainment centre. Additionally, enjoy a view of the tallest and grandest dancing fountains, perhaps while you dine at an outdoor restaurant, a truly picturesque sight. Visit the largest aquarium in the world, consisting of thousands of marine creatures, including over 300 Sharks and Rays, and over 140 species.

Finally, stopover at the BurjKhalifa, the tallest building in the world. From enjoying the best view of Dubai's skyline at 'BurjKhalifa at the top' to discovering extraordinary design, art and culture within oil paintings, photography and sculpture.

USD. 55.00 per adult or child (inclusive of Burj Khalifa tickets)
